THURSDAY, MAY 10, 1900.

Dr. Will P. Ross' election for delegate to the Republican national convention went through without a bobble.

Ex-Gov. BRADLEY's magnificent fight for "civil liberty" is calling forth praise from every quarter. And he gives no quarter to the enemies of the ballot.

The lying correspondent of the yellow newspaper continues to hound Governor Taylor at every turn and to manufacture the most sensational reports. His imagination can concoct. One of these days a Goblin will get him if he don't look out.

In 1895 Senator Hoar said, speaking of the tree planted by the first American settlers: "Its boughs hang over the Pacific; and in time—in good time—it will send its roots beneath the waves and receive under its vast canopy the islands of the sea." It's beginning to look that way now.

It will be seen from the communication from Paris, published in another column that the insurgent forces in the Philippines are still looking to Bryan and other allies in America to finally get Aguinaldo out of trouble—when Bryan is President of America and the Islands of the Seas.

DURING the year 1899 there were 68 railroads with 9,041 miles of track in the hands of receivers. During the last Democratic administration the average for three years 1894-96 was 171 roads in hands of receivers with 36,383 miles of road. Something seems to have happened since these disastrous years to give an impetus to railroading—the safest business barometer. It is a safe guess that railroad men will not wait for change from the present conditions of the country's business.

THERE seems to have been too many Rosses in the Republican district convention for our friends, the Democratic newspaper correspondents. Two men of the same name were too many for these careful writers, and about two to one of the Democratic newspapers have reported that W. H. Ross, colored, was elected one of the National delegates from this district. If W. H. Ross was secretary of the district convention, but Dr. Will P. Ross was chosen a National delegate. Both are of Hopkins county.

"APPLE MARY" was arrested for begging in New York the other day, and a basket of rubbish she carried was found to contain about twenty-three pounds of money, mostly in pennies, which she had saved. It is said she can write her check for $75,000, all saved from the slow accumulation of forty years. It is not well to be penniless or miserly, but the free-handed wage-earner who spends every month all he earns, might learn a valuable lesson from "Apple Mary's" savings bank account. Our own farmers and railroad men who always have money could easily have a bank account by the exercise of a little self denial and wise economy. There may come a rainy day, and this is a good thing for the housewives to think of.

NEXT Thursday the Republican State convention meets at Louisville. Hopkins county and every county in Kentucky should and will have good delegations there. If it should turn out that the supreme court has down a decision on Monday favorable to the people of Kentucky, and the Goebel-Beckham forces are thrown into what would be their utter confusion, what a time of rejoicing there would be. If in their wisdom the supreme judges decide they have no jurisdiction all Kentuckians will bow before the unyielding necessities of technical law and set about to right their wrongs at the polls in a yet more decided manner than they asserted themselves in favor of civil liberty at the last November election.

SAMUEL CRUMBAKER.

Hopkins County Boy Named for Senator From Vanderburg County, Ind.

The following, from the Sunday Evansville Courier, tells a story of political victory for Samuel Crumbaker, son of our esteemed and worthy county man, Mr. Jacob Crumbaker, one of our most prosperous farmers. Mr. Crumbaker has been singularly fortunate in his political career in Indiana. Here is the story:

The Republicans of Vanderburg county met in county convention at Cook's park Saturday morning at 10 o'clock for the purpose of nominating a county ticket. The feature of the convention was the turning down of A. J. Clark for State senator and the nomination of Samuel Crumbaker for that office. The fall of Clark was something fearful to contemplate.

For State senator the name of Samuel Crumbaker and A. J. Clark were the only ones named. Only one ballot was necessary to decide the choice of the convention. The vote stood as follows: Crumbaker, 294; Clark 244. It was a close shave for Crumbaker, but it was the victory of his life.

Bordley News.

Bordley, Ky., May 8.—Mr. John T. Potts, of the Hearn neighborhood, who has been very ill for some time, is still in a bad condition.

The doctors are in doubt as to whether he has spinal meningitis or whether the trouble is entirely confined to his brain.

John Lipford, of the Hearn neighborhood, is very ill with typhoid fever.

Lightning struck the telephone line between this place and Sturgis Wednesday evening. Mr. Mollie Hammock was at the phone, shaking her lightly.

Mr. Sheldon's house burned down Saturday at 11:30 a. m. He is experiencing bad luck as his house was burned by lightning.

John S. Hammock, of this place, has bought Jordan A. Giles store at Sturgis. Mr. Hammock is an honest dealer and well known merchant.

James McChord came home one night last week and found a big black dog in his yard, and the dog tried to bite him, so he ran in the house and got his gun and shot at the dog. His wife thought he had shot himself and she fainted.

A tobacco plant is looking fine and some farmers say that they will be able to plant by the 10th.

A large portion of the corn crop has been planted and is up and doing well.

CURED A RUNNING SORE. "I had a bad running sore on my breast for over a year," says Henry Richards, of Wilkesville, N. Y., "and tried a great many remedies, but got no relief until I used Banner Salve. After using one half a box I was perfectly cured. I cannot recommend it too highly, and will never be without it in the house."

A Loke on Them. Uncle Oscar Stevens told a good one on the L. & N. yard crew. Tuesday afternoon they went to Hecla after a loaded car. They hurriedly coupled it on the rest of the train, and when they reached the yard they found that the load consisted of a hen, and a brood of chickens. George Hooser, who was in the hen, is utter astonishment while Lawrence Kilroy, telephoned for the owner to come after his property. We did not learn whether they charged freight on them or not.

This Man Gets a Texas Bride.

Hopkinsville, Ky., May 6.—News has been received in this city of the marriage of Mr. Frank M. Quarles and Mrs. Anna L. Peay. The ceremony was performed Thursday morning at the home of the bride's brother, Mr. R. E. Lewis, in Ennis, Tex. Mr. Quarles left Hopkinsville last week ostensibly for a business visit to Bowling Green, and his acquaintances had no intimation of the real nature of his trip.

Nervous Prostration.

I had nervous trouble for years, which at times completely prostrated me and made life not worth living. I tried many physicians and no end of nerve and other remedies without relief. Mr. M. J. Crews, merchant, Maioy, Iowa, persuaded me to try Morley's Sarsaparilla and Iron. The very first bottle went to the right spot, for I felt a complete change and now, after using six bottles in all I am perfectly well.

Sold by agent in every town and by Campbell & Co.

Fortune knocks once at every man's door who is willing to advertise—will you be out or in when the time comes?
Businessmen may come and businesses may go, but the shrewd advertiser's business flows on forever. The needle of the business man's compass should always point to "judicious advertising." Ignorance of the law of advertising is no excuse for failure.

Perpetual motion has been discovered by successful advertisers. A successful advertiser said:—"Concentrate your mind, thought and energy exclusively upon the business in which you are engaged." Don't trust to luck in your advertising—you'll lose.

Constancy is a virtue—combined with consistency in advertising it buys jewels. The reward of merit and judicious advertising is success. "Make haste slowly" is an old proverb—plan your advertising for ultimate success.

Circumstances alter cases—different advertisers require different methods. Judicious advertising is a synonym for permanent prosperity. Misrepresentations will never make permanent buyers. Truth sticks! Progress is an eternal law—advertising is an important instrument in its execution.

The matron of a well known Masonic Home mentions one inmate, seventy years of age, who has been in the infirmary for three years, a great sufferer from indigestion, and has been taking R-P-A-N'S about a year and a half and finds them so beneficial that he is never without them. He is willing that his name should be used in a testimonial, as it might be of use in persuading some other person to try them. A second old gentleman, in the same institution, eighty-four years of age, has had liver trouble for many years and finds that R-P-A-N'S help him very much. They also have two nurses there, one thirty years of age, the other forty-two; both suffer from indigestion, causing headache, depression of spirits and nervousness. They take the Tablets and find them so useful that they always have a package in their pockets. The matron also states that she is forty-five years of age and at times suffers with indigestion, causing pain and paroxysms of belching, and finds that the Tablets are very good indeed and is perfectly willing to have her name used in a testimonial.
